

Profusions Health & Wellness Unveils Revamped Website to Enhance Client Experience

Phoenix, AZ — October 2, 2025 – Profusions Health & Wellness, a leader in virtual wellness and hormone optimization, proudly announces the launch of its newly redesigned website: www.myprofusions.com. The refreshed site offers clients a seamless, modern, and more intuitive experience for accessing Profusions' innovative wellness solutions, from hormone therapy to peptides and GLP-1 programs.

Key features of the new website include:

- Streamlined Navigation: A simplified structure that makes it easy to explore services, therapies, and educational resources.
- Enhanced Scheduling: Clients can now conveniently book consultations with licensed providers directly through the website.
- Optimized Mobile Experience: Fully responsive design ensures effortless browsing on any device.
- Educational Resources: Expanded content to guide clients in understanding hormone health, weight optimization, peptide therapy, and holistic care.
- Referral Incentives: Direct access to Profusions' new referral program, offering clients the opportunity to Give $30, Get $30 when they refer friends and family.

Referral Program Spotlight

Clients are invited to share wellness with their network through Profusions' Give $30, Get $30 incentive. When a referral books and completes their first consultation, both the client and their referral will receive a $30 credit toward future services. To participate, visit referrals.myprofusions.com.

Quote from Leadership

"Our newly revamped website reflects Profusions' commitment to accessibility, innovation, and client-centered care," said Chantel Miladinović, CEO of Profusions Health & Wellness. "This launch is more than a design upgrade—it's about making it easier than ever for clients to connect with expert care, learn about our services, and take meaningful steps toward their health goals."

Call to Action

Profusions invites both new and existing clients to explore the redesigned website at www.myprofusions.com, schedule a consultation, and take advantage of the referral program to share the gift of wellness.
